

Personal Pronouns

Pronouns are words that take the place of nouns. Personal pronouns are used to avoid repetition of the noun. I, he, she, we, and they are examples of personal pronouns.

Noun

Personal Pronoun

James has a dog.

He has a dog.

James likes his dog.

He likes his dog.

Maggie and Janel painted a mural.

They painted a mural.

Maggie and Janel were proud of their work.

They were proud of their work.

Choose the personal pronoun from the box that best completes each sentence. Write it on the line.

He She I They It

1. I live in a house. _____ has a red door.
2. My name is Keisha. _____ am seven years old.
3. Noah lives next door. _____ has a little sister.
4. Sally is Noah's sister. _____ likes to sing.
5. I like to play with Noah and Sally. _____ are my friends.