

Expand Imperative Sentences

Imperative sentences give a command. You can expand imperative sentences by telling how to do something or by describing a noun in the sentence.

Sit at your desk.

Sit quietly at your desk.

Choose a detail from the box to expand each imperative sentence. Write it on the line.

for a walk	in the library	before you play	to the teacher	to the shelf
------------	----------------	-----------------	----------------	--------------

1. Return the book _____.
2. Take the dog _____.
3. Clean your room _____.
4. Do your homework _____.
5. Be nice _____.