

Expand Declarative and Exclamatory Sentences

Declarative sentences make statements. Exclamatory sentences show excitement and end in a !. You can add details to expand declarative and exclamatory sentences.

Declarative: I am sitting at my desk.

I am sitting quietly at my desk.

Exclamatory: I can't wait!

I can't wait to see the movie!

Expand each declarative or exclamatory sentence with a detail from the box. Write it on the line and add the correct punctuation.

for pie	to pick apples	sweet, red	in my lunch box	with ice cream
---------	----------------	------------	-----------------	----------------

1. We are going to the orchard _____
2. I like _____ apples the best _____
3. Mom will use some apples _____
4. I love pie _____
5. I will take an apple _____