

A Day at the Beach

Directions: Read the passage. Answer the questions.

Instrucciones: Lee el pasaje. Contesta las preguntas.

The beach is a great place to visit. There are many things to do there.

Some people like to sit on the sand at the beach. They like to read a book or take a nap. Building sandcastles is fun for other people. They use sand, shovels, and pails.

Some people like to pick up seashells and sand dollars at the beach. You can find them in sand or water.

Many people like to play in the water. They like to splash in the waves. Some people like to go surfing.

Not everyone likes to do exactly the same things at the beach. But one thing is for sure—no matter what you do at the beach, you are sure to have a fun day!

1. What is this passage about?
 (A) people
 (B) things to do at the beach
 (C) things you need for surfing
 (D) how to build sandcastles
2. Which is not needed to make a sandcastle?
 (A) a shovel
 (B) a board
 (C) sand
 (D) a pail

Talk About It!
¡Hablamos de ello!

Where in the passage did you find the answer to each question?
¿Dónde en el pasaje encontraste la respuesta a cada pregunta?