

May

There are just three little letters
In the merry month of May.
There are just three little letters,
But they have a lot to say.
They say a lot because May
Is full of special things.
In May we might see butterflies
Trying out their wings.
Or turtles hatching from their eggs,
Or kids who play on swings.
We have an awesome time in May
With all the fun it brings!

