High in the Sky

by Mara Padilla

This is New York City. It is a big place in our country. It has all kinds of fine sights.

Look way up high in the sky. This is the Empire State Building. Let's go inside.

We will see 86 flights of stairs!
Will you try to climb them?
I might try it!

Many people worked on this building. They stayed day and night. It opened in 1931.

Look way up at the top.
The top lights up at night.
The bright lights change.
Red! White! Green!

We can see the people below.
They seem as small as ants!
Then we see cars go by.

Why is this place so much fun?
Kids and grown-ups find a lot to see. They can visit again and again.
